“ Joe and I were scout car partners at the old Fifth Precinct. We were able to ride motorcycles together after he won a Goldwing in a raffle. Nearly lost both him and one of my daughters when riding through Chicago. When passing a semi it blew a tire and the rubber hit Joe. He kept the motorcycle up and managed to get to the shoulder of the road. Both Joe and my Daughter were unhurt and only minor damage to the motorcycle.

“ It was shocking to hear Joe passed, Joe and I were scout car partners at the 5th precinct. All I could say he was a great partner and a great cop. May he rest in peace.
