He never let any animal go hungry, always ensuring they were well-fed and taken care of. He consistently made donations to the Humane Society and animal rescue groups, ensuring that all animals received the care and attention they deserved.

Joseph was truly devoted to his family. He would consistently attend cheerleading competitions, volleyball games, and softball games, always being an active and engaged dad. “ Saddened to hear of the passing of my oldest, dearest buddy. Back in the days of the “Binder Boys”, I was lucky to call Joe my best bud. We hung out with the other “Binder Boys” (like Tom, Art, and my bro, Jerry), but Joe and I often traveled through many teen experiences together, like when we drove to New Orleans, each taking his turn skidding off the snow covered roads, into ditches, in my 56 Chevy. A true gentleman and dear pal.

My dad told me many Stories and experiences that he had in his life with you. He always described you as his Best friend and you were like his brother. He loved you very much and I am so glad that you guys shared so many memories together. I loved hearing all about them from my dad.

“ A great neighbor for 40 years who will be sorely missed. Joe loved to talk about his daughters, grandkids, watching his grand dogs, feeding stray cats and feeding the birds. He was a humble, kind and gentle man, and I will miss our conversations in the yard or while sitting on his outside bench. It has been an honor and a blessing to have known Joe for so many years. “ I'm definitely going to miss Joe texting me and sending me great ideas for the grandkids for Christmas presents and bringing food to him once in a while he was great to talk to him very kind. We're definitely going to miss him as our neighbor he was the first one to send me the link to get free test for Covid And was always asking how I was doing. It's gonna be different and not seeing him on that lawnmower. Right up there lawn service cut his grass. He was so funny and very kind.
