“ To Sue and the Schulte Family: The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love.

With sincere condolences, Pattie Malone

“ I am so deeply sorry for the loss of such an amazing man with such a wonderful sense of humor and always a smile on his face. "Dad" was such an important figure to several of us as we grew up in our "Church family".... he never worried about much and always let Mary and I get away with our antics! I will never forget all the wonderful memories with my parents when they were all Bowling together or running the Merchandise Room at the Fun Fairs. I am so honored to have had him in my life as a role model. May the Holy Spirit guide your family through these difficult times. You will always remain in my prayers, Love Heather Stadler

*Dear Fran, Suzie, Joey & Mary,
Words can't express our sadness for your loss. Joe was such a kind man who would light up the room with his presence and humor. So many lovely family memories. He will be greatly missed, and will always bring a smile when thought of.*
