“ Joe's quiet manner and wonderful sense of humor was always a bright spot in my day. I only knew Joe from working with him on my accounting, yet he was a big influence. I only hope and pray the family he leaves behind will know he touched a lot of lives. I will surely miss him.##imported-begin##Linda Bologna (Embroidery & Much More)##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of working with Joe at the City of Rochester, where I have served as Finance Director since 1998.

I came to know Joe as a man of quiet and steady determination, tremendous work ethic, and a marvelous sense of humor.

Joe gave of himself in a hundred ways to his family and friends and he never complained about anything.

Joe never had a bad thing to say about anybody, nor could anyone say anything bad about him.

I pray that Joe will be reunited with his father, Joe Sr., who himself died early in Joe's life, and that Joe will rest with God and all of His Saints and Angels for eternity. I pray for the comfort of his loving wife, Paula, his son, Joey, and his daughter, Deanna.

Resquiescant in pace!##imported-begin##Thomas C. Skrobola##imported-end##
