“ Although Joe(Bobo) was only a couple years older than me, as his cousin I somewhat always looked up to him as sort of an older brother. Always fun to be around throughout our entire lives as kids and adults.

He would sometimes be considered a little stubborn at times about certain things but when it came to his personal beliefs in his wife, children, family and friends I always admired what he felt was the most important things in his life and he stood by his heart and was proud to defend what he believed meant the most to him. I will always respect my cousin for his beliefs in his family.

Although, as adults, we know that passing is something that we have to accept for all of us eventually and the sorrow it brings will hopefully pass as well in time, however there are certain people in ones life that you just don't think it will ever come to be, Bobo was that kind of person to me. I loved the man and admire his entire family. Joe you will be missed but never forgotten. Please say "Hi" to Sadie for me.
