“ I will always be eternally grateful to my dear Aunt Jo for encouraging my grandmother to help me with school. I would not be where I am today, had it not been for her deep concern for my future and her encouragement to go to school to become a teacher.

“ I encountered "Jo" later in her life. Her playfulness and ready smile were evident. She retained a professional interest and identity long after her clinical duties had ended, which is inspiring. I looked forward to visits at Chippendale with Jo and "Eddeh," as Judy sometimes says, and will miss her. My thoughts are with Judy, Margaret, Eddie, and Joe.
