“ On behalf of the entire Arthur Smith family I would like to offer my condolences to the Schattmaier family. Not only were Carl and Josie great neighbors, but we will forever be indebted to both of them for the patience shown while my son Jason and his wife Krystal worked through the process of purchasing the house on Fisher Road. When dealing with a federally backed mortgage loan, and a complete government shutdown at the time of closing, both items completely out of Jason's control, Carl and Josie showed poise and compassion during the delay and were in the end delighted that Jason and Krystal were able to purchase the home that they (Carl & Josie) had built and raised their own family. That in itself show the type of people that Carl and Josephine were. We will forever be grateful.

United once again, may they rest in piece.

Thank you for your kind words. That makes my heart melt that they were able to raise their family in the house that we had - and still have great memories of.
