“ I am truly blessed to call Mr. Blocki my Godfather. I have so many wonderful memories growing up, and knowing that he and Mrs. Blocki were always there. The kindness and love they bestowed upon me was a gift in itself.

When I heard of his passing, I cried, but after a few minutes, I started to remember things from my childhood. One of the fondest memories I have is the day I made my first communion, and the hug I got from him...I can still smell his pipe tobacco...and still hear him laugh. I will mourn his passing, but I will always remember him and cherish the time I have had the pleasure to spend with him.

All my love to Mrs. Blocki...
