

Josh Cornwell

March 22, 1991 - April 3, 2025

Josh Cornwell, of Roseville, passed away Thursday, April 3, 2025, at the age of 34. He was born in Warren, Michigan on March 22, 1991. Beloved son of Gregory Cornwell and Carolyn (Nick Rossilli) Cornwell. Dearest nephew of Kathie (Mark) Hauswirth and family; Jeff (Krista) Nagy and family; the late Mike Nagy and family; Dennis (Pat) Shulskie and family; Larry (Roseanne) Shulskie and family; Gary (Karen) Shulskie and family; and Matt Figlan and family. Also survived by many loving friends, work colleagues, and his gaming family.

Josh is remembered as a man who was warm, caring, and always wanted the best for others. He had a knack of knowing when someone needed a kind ear, cheering up, or just a friend to be with. Josh loved to make people smile, and would use his humor and silly faces to cheer people up and make their day a little bit brighter. He was a great listener and could make people feel so comfortable and welcomed by him, that often times he would become a sort of confidant for others, helping to ease their worries and see the beauty that the world has to offer. Josh was dearly loved by all those who knew him and will be greatly missed.

“ To the family oh Josh, I give you all the loving arms you need. I'm so saddened by his loss, I knew him for a short time working with him in the fashion department of Meijer. He was a very funny and pleasant man. I will miss him there. I see him in many places as I try to work. I wish him peace as GOD gave him his angel wings.

To all Josh's friends, I know you'll all miss the funny man. He'll be watching over everyone. God will give you strength as he will ease your day. As Josh will always have your back. He's watching over us now.
