“ Dear Nikich family, we are so very sorry for your loss. We are reminded of your pain every time we drive down Schoenherr. We too have lost loved ones to death. To cope with our pain, we have found comfort in the scriptures. God promises at Revelation 21:4 that "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting time to look forward to. Like Jesus' friend Lazarus, Jovan is sleeping in death, awaiting a resurrection that Jesus is yearning to do. (John 11:11; John 5:28,29) So sorry for your loss and your pain. Your neighbors, the Duda family

“ Dear family, I am sorry about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Jovan Nikich. Releasing and expressing grief is not always easy; especially, when you have to seem strong for other family members. Job and many others find that talking about your feelings to a “true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically can bring a measure of relief. (Proverbs 17:17) And if the listener is another bereaved person you may be able to glean some practical suggestions on how you can cope. Never keep things bottle in.
