“ Everyone should be this lucky to have life long friend like Joyce. She certainly made my life better and the world was a better place with her in it. Now my comfort is to know that she is at Home with Jesus and after all the years of suffering, she is finally pain free. God put His arms around her, gave her a hug, and put all the pieces back together. I will miss you Joyce, but my only salvation is to know that someday we will meet again. Rest now in the arms of Jesus. You deserve it. Love you my forever FRIEND!!! Brenda

What a beautiful tribute. Joyce was always so kind to us and a pleasure to know!! So thankful she had you for a best friend! Joyce is also a special name in my family; the name of my grandmother. God bless you! Sending our love ❤️ Nannette and Ronnie

Also, I would like to thank Joyce's Hospice nurse, Danielle, for the wonderful care that she gave Joyce in the short time she was with her. She was absolutely wonderful and so caring. Thank you Danielle. But I don't want to forget another Hospice nurse, Johanna, that took the time to come out and get Joyce ready to start Hospice. You girls are wonderful. Love from all of Joyce's family & Friends.. Also, a big thank you to Ginette, the nurse that took care of Joyce before hospice. What a wonderful job you did. Joyce cared for you a lot.

Joyce was a special spirit. Loved our conversations and laughs. She truly was the most caring person, always concerned for others. I regret we missed our last visit together. Rest in your well-deserved peace.

My sweet Joyce - I just loved you. I always felt a connection to my Mom whenever I saw or talked to you. I will miss you so much but I know the Lord has his arms wrapped around you. Fly high with the angels.

Dearest Joyce you were so very special. Always smiling, having a kind word to say and above all fun to talk to. You weathered a tough life the many years I knew you with strength and never let anything get you down. Rest in Peace, my friend. Mary
