“ My heartfelt and most sincere sympathy to the entire Dubiel family in the loss of their husband, father and dziadziu. Pan Dubiel was one of the last links to my dad..and growing up I have fond memories of our shared times..especially celebrating the holidays together. I sure hope my folks are reunited once more with their good buddy Jozef! Love, Mary Tomasiak

“ He was the best, cutest Dziadziu. I always marveled at how he always maintained a smile on his face, even in hard times. He was such a great man, and he will be missed so much.

“ Pan Dubiel was part of group that I fondly and unofficially named KTDG (Kitchen Table Debate Group). He and the group honored me when I came home from the Navy. My memory of this occasion is strong because it was spontaneous. It is a Happy and a Good memory. They shook my hand, patted me on the back and raised their glasses. May I honor Pan Dubiel now, hopefully, in the spirit of the 4th Commandment. ”
