“ Dear Candi

You will be missed dearly! John looks at your picture everyday and says hi to you. He misses and loves you. One of my best days is when you became Trinity god mother and Trinity will always have that if you. Now you are an angel with your mom and sister. I'm sure you guys are having a blast. One day we will meet again until thank Candi may you Rest In Peace.

“ My Dearest Candi

Girl so many years went bye where we were no longer in touch except for our wonderful memories that I will always cherish Candi I'm honored knowing we once was a team together raising these kids and being part of a big happy family doing all the things we once did in life as we were growing up as young women and mothers you always made a big point out of being 4 months older than me and as we moved on in life I see u followed your dreams of happiness I'm so proud of your decisions I can't stop thinking about how I led you to Christ and was part of you being baptized at the river I'm thankful for you choosing me to be the coach of the birth of your 4 oldest children Most of all I'm so thankful for having the opportunity to speak to your soul during your ending days I know you heard my message Candi so now you done made it to the real place called home give your mom sister and your grand baby a big hug from me I love you and always will and I look forward seeing you again when ever it's my turn to go through them Heavenly gates like you

“ Candy candy candy where do I even begin! We got a rocky start but one thing I can say is I had a kick butt mother in law! From the late nights up gossiping!! To the shopping sprees were we would hide all our purchases from the boys. I'm sad I won't get to try on my wedding dresses with you because u promised to be BRUTALLY honest! You even offered to give me some booty.... we all know I don't have one! I'm still going to get that tattoo we always talked about and I promise I won't miss a Chris brown concert! Thank you for blessing me with ur son... even if sometimes you didn't want to share 💙 take care of my baby Judy I'll see u at the gates 💙

“ Lawrence Williams

Dear Mama. I'm trying so hard to be strong right now but its just so hard. What I would give right now just to tell a joke and hear you laugh again. You raised me to be who I am today which is a mature young man and always respect my elders. As I cry writing this I just wish I can hug and kiss you right but God has a plan for you and Us. Your up in Heaven with you Grandson Cameron take care of him tell my son I love him. I just want you to know How much I love you and miss you its not easy losing but I will stay strong and Cherish our moments we had!

R.I.H My Beautiful Mother and I'll see you on the other side.Until we meet again I Love you!

“ Mom nothing in the world can take my pain away but it made me feel a little better to write this for you... what an amazing joyful time we've always spent together every laugh and conversation every hug meant the world to me as you do.. my heart aches and my eyes will never dry out but I know as time goes on you'll continue to help me heal just like you always have for years you've always had my back and I never questioned it! I can say mom I have yours too I got Julian Jordan tank Shemar ivory Jermaine and pops I got your back mom... you are already truly missed and I love you forever! Words can't express how I feel but I will see you again thank you for the tough lesson I've learn and the comfort you gave.. I will keep your memory alive forever Miss you MA! r.i.h

“ One thing I would like to share about Judy is every time I seen her she was always happy, always smiling, always joking. She loved when her older boys would come visit, that made her day. Our son (Nathaniel) loved going to grandma's house to eat up all her chicken and candy. She loved her family unconditionally. Her grand kids biologically or not are her world. Whenever she had the chance she would pull out her phone to snap pictures and record them, never missing a beat. I'm sorry the time with her was cut so short. You will never be forgotten.
