“ I always enjoyed my time with Judy! I loved listening to her stories about her life. She amazed me at all she did and accomplished. She had a great sense of humor too! She will be missed. Blessings to Chris and her entire family. Rest In Peace Judy ~

“ I have so many memories of my “kid” sister. She was really proud of her son and his family. She was creative. She taught my wife how to create art with stained glass. She was always exited when we made our annual Christmas visit to our sister Nancy Vespa in Canada. For most of those years Nancy and Joe would overwhelm us with a spread of Italian food. In later years we convinced Nancy and Joe not to work so hard; so we would meet at a Windsor restaurant. On one of those occasions there were several of us in a minivan. All of us had passports except Judy. She had brought a packet of identity items that included a birth certificate and home ownership documents. The Canadian border guard said “Which one is Judith Ann?” I opened the back sliding door of the minivan. The border guard said, in mock anger, “everyone here has one simple document for me. Judith Ann brought me your life history.” Within days Judy applied for an enhanced driver’s license. She worked hard to build a life for herself and her son after her husband left her a goodbye note. I can’t help but be proud of how well she did.

Judy never aged. I am so happy that she had a wonderful family in Chris, Aida and their children. In that she was blessed. Jim Drive family with all the wonderful kids and lifelong friendships that Judy helped created. Rest in peace.

Judy was the nicest lady! Always so nice to me and my kids. So personable and conversational. And always with a smile on her face. It was my pleasure to know her. She will be missed. Blessings to Chris, Aida and kids. The Fallone Family
