“ My memories of Aunt Julie date back to my early childhood. Although so long ago, it is amazing how they stay with you. I have fond memories of times with my grandparents. She lived a long and full life thanks to you. I know she is rejoicing in heaven with her siblings. Blessings to all of you.##imported-begin##Maryann Daddow (daughter of Ray Woloszyk, her nephew)##imported-end##

“ Dear Thaddeus, So sorry to hear of your loss; my condolences go out to you and your family. Your grandmother, Zofia Glodowski was the sister of my grandmother, Maria Glodowski-Smykla-Leszczynski, and your father and mine were cousins. From what I know about our shared family tree, I believe your mother was one of only two left from that generation. The other I believe is Helen Jarosz. My mother, Glendora, died in December '07 and my father, Fred, passed away the following October. It's tough losing parents, especially a mother. From the other messages in your guestbook it sounds like you and your wife were devoted to your mom and showed her much love in her last years. I hope you find comfort in the loving memories you shared.##imported-begin##Karen Smykla##imported-end##

“ Dear Ted and Kathy,
What love you showed to your mom throughout her life, especially in these last years where you cared for her, respected her, and shared your home with her. What a lucky mom! I still picture her with an apron on, cooking for a wedding with my grandma (Frances Woloszyk), and taking an afternoon break before the dinner rush started. I think those ladies had more fun than the wedding guests did. But they sure knew how to work! Your mom was an example of a person with admirable values, a strong work ethic and a deep love of God. And the "apple doesn't fall far from the tree!" Love and prayers to you.###imported-begin## Kathy Peterson (granddaughter of Frances Woloszyk)###imported-end##

“ Dear Thaddeus and Katherine:

It has been greater than 11 years when you warmly embraced your mother into your home to facilitate her recovery from her surgery; and, as she recovered, your home became her home as well. You provided her with all the comforts of unconditional love & respect along with conversation, entertainment; privacy & patience; good food; and, good mental hygiene.

Therefore, may you find comfort & peace in knowing that you did all the right things for your mother, as well as contributed abundantly to her happiness & long life her on earth; which she will take with her on her journey to her new home.

We would like to extend our heartfelt sympathy for your loss - as there is a deep loss when it comes to a mother.

Thinking of you and here to support you in any way through these difficult days.

Your closest neighbors :)###imported-begin##Margaret & David, Regina with Jacob, Renee & Jeffrey, David II & Hannah with Lily Grace, Rebecca & Onnie with September Rose##imported-end##
