“ My mom was the best playmate. She was patient, loving and giving. Sharing a cinnamon roll from the Twin Pines milkman while watching I Love Lucy in the morning.

Bringing out a tray of sandwiches and Kool-Aid for lunch for all the children that happened to be swimming in our pool that day, then serving fresh cherries from our trees for dessert. Lying on the floor and building garages out of blocks, then driving our little cars in and out of the garages. Elaborate tea parties with my dolls, and she ALWAYS sat at the table and drank tea. Sewing lovely doll clothes with crocheted hats for all my dolls.

My mom was the best supporter. Always in the audience, clapping and big hugs afterwards, no matter how boring the concert might have been. She was so proud. As I grew, we became friends. She taught me many things that I will always hold dear to my heart.

When I was caring for a newborn, she always gently offered help, but never criticized. In her later years, I was honored to care for her in whatever way I could. She has been an inspiration and a joy to me, and to her entire family. Her love will always fill my heart.

“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dearly loved Julia Krisfalusi. I can only imagine the pain you must feel. I hope you find comfort in the Bible because Jesus Christ, through God's Kingdom gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 11: 33-38)~ Please remember the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. – 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.
