“ Julie was such a tender, loving human being. I knew her for years and her children babysat for my kids. Her infectious laugh warmed up a room and through the tough years, she would be comforting you. She shared many stories and was so kind. I don't have to "smooze" her family, they knew and she was always there for them. To be able to look 60 and be 83, well that's a feat in itself. I think next life I'm coming back as Julie. We shared a lot of memories and she was so totally honest. She loved life and it showed. The last few years of her life she was very happy and ALWAYS a giving person. Right now she's probably standing at heaven's doors just waiting for the good ones. Hope you have a ticket for me sweetie. Your family must beam at how you made lemonaid out of lemons. Thanks for teaching me all about life and how you play your cards. I'll miss you soooooooooooooo much and your laugh. Your kids absolutely turned out wonderful and it shows. Maria, Diane, David and Dan and your children must be soooooo proud. I'll love and miss you soooooooooo much. Just an old friend and am soooooooooo grateful our paths crossed.
Lovingly,

“ I am very fortunate to have had Julie for my next door neighbor for the past three years plus. After settling into my new home for about two days, Julie knocked on my door with a pork roast and vegetables, along with her beautiful smile, and a "Welcome to the neighborhood!" Julie was one of the most upbeat people I've ever met. She always had a smile, a hug, and an attempted solution to my troubles and problems. We sat on our porches and must have played a hundred board games. Julies favorite reading material's were uplifting spiritual books, and I almost never left her house without some computer print outs she wanted to share with me. She was so proud of her children and grand children. I spent a lot of time seeing all the latest pictures of the most recent family event. When my mother passed away my Pastor said something that gave me great comfort. He said, "Don't spend to much time in your sorrow, but think of your mother as receiving her promotion." Julie loved our Lord Jesus. I know because she told me so. Julies passing will leave a hole in my heart. I'm grateful to have spent the afternoon with her on her final day on this earth. Although words can not describe our sadness in loosing our dear friend, take courage in knowing at this time, Julie has received her promotion. I loved her so very much!

“ Our sincerest condolences to the entire family for the loss of such a wonderful and caring person. She was always acknowledging what was going on in her family's lives and I will miss her posts on Facebook that she always signed "love gram." I will always remember how happy she was at Kaytie's birthday party when Vince proposed and how she was the first person to grab a towel and dance around the room. May she rest in peace and may you all find peace in this time of sorrow.

“ Your mother was a warm and caring person. The thing I remember most is the way she would hug and squeeze you when she saw you and she had a great laugh. She was always there to give my mother a helping hand or a shoulder to cry on. She was a great person and will be missed. It was a blessing to have known her. You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this time of sorrow. All my prayers,
