“ To the Kott Family:

Goodbye to my dearest friend and next door neighbor for many years. We raised our children together. We laughed and cried together. We shared many a bottle of wine together. We cried when Elvis died. We were godparents for each others children. We had many, many good times on Hamburg. The neighborhood weddings, all the parties and even cruises, big and small. Even our crazy Bob-lo excursions. Dining at Mario's was always our favorite dinner place. So many memories.

We always kept in touch thru the years and I will miss our chit chats . May she loves down upon us from the beautiful after life that we are sure she will enjoy.

And Karen pleaseSEND IN THE CLOWNS!
