“ My only memory of Karen was the day we met at Scott and Candice's wedding. As mothers we both felt the pride we felt and enjoyed the special day. Her beautiful smile and laughter were both contagious ! I will always remember her for that. My thoughts and prayers are with all of Karen's family and friends. Scott, you know my heart is with you today as always I love you dearly. The last couple of months have been filled with worry and sadness, but someday your good memories will outshine the sadness. Love Mom and Jim

“ So many great memories with my dear friend Karen from the time we met at 8 years old! I will miss so many things about you & our friendship. I will miss hearing the special ring I had set up on my phone so I'd know it was you. Me & the kids visiting you in Florida. The fun silly times & how we'd just crack up at each other! Your first Christmas in your new apt in Michigan & how beautiful you decorated. I'll always think of you when I wear my red Calvin Klein robe you gave me for Christmas. Our talks about the memories of growing up together...the fashion shows with old drapes & playing jump rope! I will miss our weekly conversations most of all. Fly high with the angels Karen. You will live on in my heart until I see you again. I love you & I already miss you terribly.
