“ I remember being at her house when she came home from work...she had cut the sleeve of her blouse while cutting paper for her kindergarten class using the paper cutter we all hated.□

“ Mrs. Osadchuk was my kindergarten teacher over 45 years ago at Fair Haven Elementary school. I remember her playing the piano in class and how kind she was. She was one of those teachers you just never forget. Sending my deepest sympathy and prayers to her family.

“ Mr. O and family. Words cannot describe how stunned I am to hear this news. All I remember from high school choir events was Mama O coming out and treating us as if we were all her own. I would say one of our biggest supporters, if not for our biggest. She loved you all very much. Mr. O you and all your family our in my thoughts and prayers<3

“ Karen was always filled with energy and loving support, no matter what she was party to - especially when it came to her amazing son, Mitch! I was blessed to work with Mitch as he taught and lead all areas of music in Richmond Schools and participated in our Richmond Community Choir. Karen was always so proud of all Mitch accomplished and continues to accomplish. It was an honor and privilege to be associated with Karen, Mitch, Alissa and their entire family. Our sincere condolences from myself, Annette and the entire Richmond Community Choir Family.

“ Karen was profoundly proud of her son, Mitch, and she loved attending his students’ choir concerts. We would sit together and she would smile and clap — afterwards telling Mitch how great the kids sounded and what a great job he did. And she loved her grandchildren, beaming with pride as she showed me pictures and told me stories of their latest accomplishments. What a great lady.  Our sincere condolences to Mitch, Alissa and extended family and friends.

Karen understood how important children and relationships are. When Sharon and I adopted our first child, Lisa, who is now 39, Karen organized a wonderful baby shower. We will always remember her as a caring friend who thought of other people ahead of herself. She was a loving mother and grandmother. All the best to her family during this difficult time.
