“ Karen and I did our RHIT Internship together and we had many great talks, if it weren't for her, I wouldn't of known of Village Square Cooperative and have found a place for myself and kids after my divorce and losing my house. She was truly an angel.

“ I remember when we got married and my mom could not make our wedding. So we decided being that my mom lived in Jacksonville Florida, we decided to honeymoon in Florida. The first time that my mom seen Karen walking through her door, she said, “ oh my god, she is a Indian princess “. I will never ever forget that moment. Rest In Peace Karen. You will be truly missed.

“ Such a tragedy to lose someone so young. Mom was telling me a story about one of the many family reunions up in Sauble Beach. Karen was staying in her folks trailer and refused to leave it even though it was hot and sunny outside. My mom, concerned about why she wouldn't leave the trailer, spoke with Karen through the trailer door. "Karen, why don't you want to come outside with all of us?". Karen, at that time a teenager, replied, "Aunt Doreen, I just can't! My jeans are too short! I look stupid!". Oh those teenager years! RIP Karen

“ I have so many memories of growing up with Karen, especially our vacations together as kids. Our ever famous bear story and hiding from the motor cyclists tale. While we sat in the back seat of my parents car we were always on the look out for the cute “boys”. And, I won't ever forget her expression of “C'mon”! These are memories that I will always hold dear. May she Rest In Peace.
