“ We were so glad that we made the trip to Detroit to see Karin in mid December. She was still very alert...checking out my clothes, wanting to know where we were going to dinner, making jokes in spite of her intense pain. During our visit we also had some very heartfelt conversations too that brought us closer together. It was intensely sad to have to say goodbye to her but she's in God's hands now and I know we'll meet again in Paradise!##imported-begin##Pat (Karin's sister) and Pam Currier##imported-end##

“ Kristin & Michael:
We have known and loved your MOM & DAD since before they were married. I (Kay) sang at their wedding when they were so happy.

When we visited Karin on December 20th in the hospital, she was in good spirits and we hoped she would improve enough to leave. However, it was not to be.

We hope you will remember the good times you had with her. We will pray with you for her and leave her in the hands of a merciful Father. God Bless You all.##imported-begin##kay & lance kronzer##imported-end##

“ Karin was a very unique person. I think that we can all agree that when God created her, he threw away the mold.

My memory of Karin was that she was a colorful person. She loved to laugh and be the life of a party. She liked to be bossy and know everyone's business, she was loud and she was funny. She had a true love for all animals and a special bond with them. I believe that this quote from Winston Churchill is very fitting for her: "I am ready to meet my Maker. Whether my Maker is prepared for the great ordeal of meeting me is another matter".

Something happened one day, not sure exactly what, but she slowly started slipping from our lives as we knew her and has been missed ever since.

Kristin and Mike, please find peace in knowing that your mother's pain and suffering is over at last, and that she is now at peace, forever.

We have made a donation to the Michigan Humane Society in the honor of her.###imported-begin##Gina, Bob, and Family ##imported-end##
