“ My Uncle Jerry mentioned to me this afternoon that he saw Kathy's notice in the paper. I hope that her passing was peaceful, that the family can find comfort with their memories of her, and the knowledge that she is moving on to a new part of her journey.

“ Rest In Peace, Kathy. Yours' was a life that tested the notion that the Lord doesn't give anyone more than they can handle.

I remember with great fondness you, Suszie, and George visting us 50 yers ago, and me and my brother fighting over your attention. What great fun. Say hello to him and my parents when you get settled in. I'm so sorry we could find out where you were, so we could visit or at least send you a card or letter. Many of us in the family thought of you often, and prayed for you always.

No more pain and sorrow for you, my dear. May God bless and keep you, my cousin.
