“ So sad to lose "Aunt Kay". She was our next door neighbor when I was little and always had a cookie for me. I have lots of happy memories and will miss her, she was like my second mother. Love to Uncle Irwin, my treasure hunting partner and Brad and Brenda.

“ Hi,

I am very sorry for your loss. I always thought your mom was a very friendly, sweet person. She was a gracious hostess and I remember at least one time when she invited me to have dinner with the family....and the conversation was very interesting...when she asked questions she really paid attention to the responses. That is rare in today's world where everyone is in a hurry. Keep all her memories close to your heart. She will be with you forever.
