“ Kenny was a kind and warm hearted man who never took himself seriously. He was a trusted friend and hard worker who always lent a hand when needed. As a coke employee he was truly one of a kind who should be remembered in all our hearts.

“ Uncle Bud helped make me who I am today. As a child he never hesitated to pick up a baseball glove and get me motivated. Later in life he helped me get ahead by instilling good work ethic. He mentored me while working at Coke. My fondest and one of my earliest memories, when can flying in my parents house with shaving cream after the Tigers won the world series against the Cardinals. What a fan! We will miss him.

Love you

“ I never met Bud in person, but he found and friended me on fb. He was my dad's cousin, so my 2nd cousin. My dad spoke highly of him. I did meet his mother, Aunt Angela, a few times. Rest in Peace, from what I know, you were a very kind man. I'm sure my dad will be one of the first to greet you in heaven.

Uncle Buddy, Kat and I always enjoyed the time we spent together with you and Aunt Joyce. I know in Heaven you're out of your earthly pain. You'll be missed by many but forgotten by none. We'll love you for all of eternity. 😊🥺

“ What a wonderful man and a prankster when we worked together. Kenny retired after 42 years at Coca-Cola in 1999. I picked up 42 balloons for his retirement party in my 2-door Sunfire which was not an easy task! I'll always remember you Kenny. Thank you for all the memories & 10-4 good buddy. To Joyce & all I pray your memories out weigh your sorrow. May you rest in pease my friend.
