“ Kenneth you were so much more than an "in law" to us. You were a brother to both of us and a very special friend of Jim's. He was so happy you were able to go hunting last November. He thought that you, he, Anthony and Walt all had a very good time. Even better were the laughter and stories that came after. Who will Jim call after a Tiger's game? We are proud to have been a part of your life.

We have been inspired by your undauntable spirit and bravery to fight for your and Jane's lives.

You were loved by so many and will be so missed. Be at peace Brother.

Jim and Toni.

After a long search, and no one will probably see this now and that's okay. Kenneth was myshipmate and friend. My youngest son is named for him, I loved and respected him that much. I am so sorry we became disconnected after we both retired from the Navy. Many laughs and pinocle games. Jane pulling hairs from my mustache!! Fair winds and following seas Shipmate. See you soon. “ *My brother, my dear friend,
Your journey of life has come to an end.
You are truly the bravest man that I know.
The love you left behind will continue to grow.
Your struggles were fought with faith, hope, and love.
Now the angels have welcomed you to heaven above.*

*You painted a portrait of your colorful history.
Those who loved you know this is no mystery.
You served your country proudly for 30 full years.
Now your absence from life has left us with tears.*

*We will miss you incredibly, that is for sure.
But know that we will surround your beloved Janie, to help her endure.*

*Though you served as a sailor, you were a teacher as well.
Thank you for all the lessons you left behind...
Your life taught us to keep love, laughter, courage, pride, and endurance ever present in our hearts and minds.*

*Sail on, our dear Kenneth, no more rough seas for you.
This simple salute comes from all of your earthly crew.
Until we meet again on the other side...*

Keep watch over us til' we're done with our ride.

You are loved.

“ Ken you will always remain in my HEART. My life has changed forever. I will bless the day when we can be reunited in GOD'S heavenly home. Till we see each other again I will feel your presence all around me. Love you forever. Jane your loving wife.
