“ Kenny and I became friends over 35 years ago. Our sons were both interested in being cub scouts. We both became leaders in scouting and remained friends for many many years. Kenny was an outstanding friend, father, husband and will be sorely missed. All who knew him were blessed as he was a religious and kind person. The Rivera's send condolences to the Dombrowski family.

“ I met Kenny and Claudia when I was going Through the RCIA at St Paul of Tarsus. I knew from the start that both Kenny and Claudia were two special people. Our friendship grew from there. Kenny, it was an honor to know you!! You lived your faith what an Awesome servant you were, and a great buddy to talk sports with too. God saw all that you have accomplished here on Earth and decided to call you home to be on his Team. I will miss talking sports with my buddy. You keep Cheering for the Tigers, Lions, Pistons and Michigan State

“ My husband and I have good memories of Kenny Dombrowski, going back over 50 years to our days as classmates together at St. Florian High School in Hamtramck. Kenny was the guy who made friends with everyone at school, at every grade level, never leaving anyone out. He played sports and his acting talents were discovered in our Senior Class Operetta where he danced in a production of "South Pacific." Kenny was a lot of fun to be around.

As the years passed and we lost track of Kenny, we found him once again with his wife, Claudia, both active at St. Paul of Tarsus Catholic Church. With grown children of their own we saw Kenney in the second half of his life, involved in his church and making good things happen within the parish. Kenny was a man devoted to his family and strong in his faith. You could see God working in the life he and Claudia made for themselves and their family.

We, among many, will miss Kenny. But we'll continue to see him in the legacy of good works he leaves behind and in the lives of his children he brought up so well. Kenny was truly "a good and faithful servant" of God. May he now be at peace and be whole once again as he enters his eternity with the Lord.
