“ Sorry for your lost there is something I would like to share with you, about a promise that Jehovah our God has told us. In regards to what grand things the future holds for us. Imagine a place where there will be no more crying, sorrow, death. This is the promise that God will give us. According to his word the bible at Psalms 37:29 these things will be of the past.

“ There are no words to explain how much Ken will be missed. He has been like a dad to me for the past 10 years and my heart is crushed. I am very grateful to have as many memories of him as I do. It was an honor to know him and love him. That man could fix anything, build anything, and pack a million things into the tiny trunk of my car. I was always baffled by how he did it. Devon, Alex, and Jackson will always know how much their Pappy loved them and I know that he will watch over them forever. We will always love you and miss you.

I cant find any words to express how I feel. Ken was my life, my very best friend who knew me well and only wanted me to be happy. And he succeeded because I have a million happy memories that will keep me goin for the rest of my life. He my love, my friend and an amazing father to our kids. And as a Pappy he was the best! Ken, you will be missed. You will always live in my heart. Please visit me in my dreams.

“ Knight Family, my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I never had the honor of meeting him-but I think he was one awesome husband, father, grandfather, son, son in law, friend. He will be missed but remember-he is always in your heart.
