“ sorry for your loss , i didnt know Uncle Ken well but what i do remember was all good,i used to stay up north in the summer with my grandparents and he came up one time and took me and my brother out to eat not expecting us to know how to eat i would guess, cause my brother ordered the perch and i ordered lobster tail, i think he was a little surprised cause he ordered a hamburger and when we went to leave he backed into a pole and bent his van bumper, but he laughed it off which surprised me, just thought i would share this and again sorry for your loss.###imported-begin###Sean Francis###imported-end##

“ I am so sad to hear of your Father's death, but know he was peacefully taken to his Heavenly reward. Each and every time I met him he showed kindness to me and love for his daughter, Jeanette. How blessed he was to have seen his 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren come into the world! May God bring comfort and peace to Kenneth's family. My deepest condolences. Love, Karen##imported-begin##Harkins##imported-end##
