“ Dad will always hold a special place in our lives, full of memories of how he has shaped our futures and guided us through thick and thin. [L][SEP]"We'll always remember that special smile, that caring heart, that warm embrace, you always gave us. [L][SEP]You being there for Mom and us through good and bad times, no matter what. [L][SEP]We'll always remember you Dad because [L][SEP]they'll never be another one to replace you in our hearts, and the love we will always have for you." [L][SEP]"As we look back over time [L][SEP]We find ourselves wondering... [L][SEP]Did we remember to thank you enough For all you have done for us? [L][SEP]For all the times you were by our sides [L][SEP]To help and support us... [L][SEP]To celebrate our successes [L][SEP]To understand our problems [L][SEP]And accept our defeats? [L][SEP]Or for teaching us by your example, The value of hard work, good judgment, [L][SEP]Courage and integrity? [L][SEP]We wonder if we ever thanked you For the sacrifices you made. [L][SEP]To let us have the very best? [L][SEP]And for the simple things [L][SEP]Like laughter, smiles and times we shared? [L][SEP]If we have forgotten to show our Gratitude enough for all the things you did, [L][SEP]We're thanking you now. Rest well dad. You will be truly missed.

“ A loss of a wonderful person. The parties, the cars, his involvement with the community, always willing to help someone. His humor and compassion for others will surely be missed. May his family find comfort in all the past memories. Heaven did gain a new angel.

“ My daddy. My rock. I knew you were tired. You had had enough. There was no cure. You hang on as long as you could. I know you wanted more time but you just couldn't do it. You were ready. You told me that. My heart was not ready. It hurts. I got this. It's going to be hard but I'll be strong. You raised me to be a bad ass strong woman. I couldn't have done it without you. I'll talk to you everyday. Don't you worry about mom. She's going to be ok. I'll make sure of it. I love  you. Sharon Marie. Your pumpkin.

“ My condolences to Barbara and family, Ken/Tony will be missed tremendously. I remember still going to my first listing appointment, all nervous at 19 years of age and Tony was with me and said just be yourself 😎

Rest in peace

“ I first met Ken back in 1996 when he was looking for someone for his daughter to date. He came into my office where I worked and brought a picture of Sharon so I knew what I was getting into on this blind date. Not too many dads would do this but Ken was fine pimping out his daughter. It cost him tickets to the Red Wings game. Small price to pay for 23+ years of happiness and still going. I guess he knew what he was doing.

I can honestly say I really lucked out not only to have known Ken but to have him as another father, I was truly blessed. Not many people could make me laugh like him, everyone will be happy to know in the end, Ken was still the same dirty old man we all loved...gonna miss you dad.

Love Jeff
