“ Dearest Dad,
It is with a heavy heart i must say goodbye.
Thank you for being my one constant in life. For listening, for your conversation and your soft guidance.
Thank you for your smile and your laughter. For teaching me how to see the lighter side of things.
Thank you for showing me strength. Take each day and make it its best.
Thank you for your unconditional love. Family, a bear hug and the little things are what matters.
Thank you for making me a better person. You are the greatest reason, I am, who I am today.
I will hold you close in heart and in my thoughts everyday.
I love you much! I miss you more!
Rest Peacefully Dad!
Goodbye for now,
Cyn

It was an honor to take care of Ken and Jan. Thanks to his family for entrusting that care to me. I had grown to love them in the time I spent with them and am grieving along with all of you from your loss. He was always so sweet to me. You're all in my prayers. May God comfort you.

“ A daughters worst nightmare is losing her father. I have lost you and the pain and heartache are unbearable. You were the very best father a daughter could have. I wish I could have one more bear hug and tell you how much I love and miss you. You will always live on in my heart and soul. I know your hand is on my shoulder guiding me through these difficult days. I know you will looking down from heaven and watching over us. I will miss you everyday of my life.

Your loving daughter Teri

My Dearest Dad, God knows how much I miss you. I look around the Condo and there are so many reminders of you that it breaks my heart. But I know, Dad, you would not want me to be sad. You would want me to hold dearly in my heart my special memories of you. I have so many of those, Dad. I love how you would give a tender loving wink meant just for me. You always made me feel so special. Oh Dad, as I continue to write this, I can't find the right words to express all the love in my heart for you. So, I'm winking at you, Dad, hoping it makes you feel how special you are to me.

Love Always, Lynn
