“ My dearest brother, it has been 7 months since you have left us for a better place! Not a day goes by that I don't miss or think of you! I thought this was supposed to get easier with time? I catch Kevin on a daily basis looking at your picture and talking to you. We miss you so very much bro! Wanted to give you some good news also. You are gonna be a uncle again! MY g/f is expecting at the end of March. God I wish you could be here! I love you brother! Tell grandma and lil Kevin we said hi please and miss them also.##imported-begin##Tim Messerschmidt##imported-end##

“ Hannah, you are in my everyday thoughts and prayers. I know how much you miss your Dad/best friend, I can't imagine your pain. I pray for your strength. Your Dad...was just to dang funny. We had great times together laughing, playing kickball, making fun of other people (just kidding) hee! He was a wonderful person who (not to mention) had a great sense of fashion, who inspired me to be a better parent, nurse, sister and aunt! I miss him terribly. I remember the day he told us he was to leave to serve in the Gulf War, and how grandma totally cried. I looked up to him with such gratitude, as everyone who knew him did! He always wanted the very best for you and cherished every step you took. I loved him, miss him. Everything you do is what he wanted for you...can't wait to see that play!

“ Ken, my heart goes out to you, your wife, granddaughter and family on the passing of your dear son. He was so very young to have been taken away but from reading other messages, he was a man who enjoyed his life, loved his family dearly and was truly loved himself. No one can ask for for more and many never achieve it. Bless you all!

“ Kenny I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. Having experienced the misfortune of burying one of my sons, I can relate to what you must be feeling. I will say to you what was said to me that helped me get through the "worst" time in my life, and that is to know that although he is apart from you now, and you miss him dearly, he is free from pain, worry, sickness and all the other misfortunes that befall us all. Have faith that Our Lord Jesus Christ has made it possible for us to see our loved ones again...we just have to "prepare ourselves". You will definitely be in my prayers this evening. Take care...

“ Little Kenny, so many wonderful memories!!!! I miss you so much already. My mind has been racing all day with thoughts of you. From spearmint leaves, Baskin Robbins, mini bike accidents, putting on plays at Christmas time, Kris Kringle, parking tickets at the bar, fried egg bows and hamburger gravy, St. Bernards chasing us down the hill, nursing school, and oh so many more. Those memories are all tucked deeply in my heart. You truly are the brother I never had, I love you so much and I know we will meet again in a better place!!!! Rest well Kenny, missing you sooooo much!!!!##imported-begin##Sue Schultz##imported-end##

“ Ken, Sylvia and Family -My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I hope this poem brings you comfort.

Near shady wall a rose once grew, Budded and blossomed in God's free light. Watered and fed by morning dew, Shedding its sweetness day and night. As it grew and blossomed fair and tall, Slowly rising to loftier height, It came to a crevice in the wall, Through which there shone a beam of light. Onward it crept with added strength, With never a thought of fear or pride. It followed the light through the crevice-length, And unfolded itself on the other side. The light, the dew, the broadening view, Were found the same as they were before; And it lost itself in beauties new, Breathing its fragrance more and more. Shall claim of death cause us to grieve, And make our courage faint or fall? Nay, let us faith and hope receive-The Rose still grows beyond the wall....Scattering fragrance far and wide, Just as it did in days of yore, Just as it did on the other side. Just as it will forevermore.##imported-begin##Grace Ross##imported-end##

“ My memories of this little guy take me back to Promenade in Detroit, where we grew up. This was a wirey, hyper little one that was always into something. One of my fondest memories was a time when, in one of many occasions, he had the garden hose out in the front. It was the summer, and a girl from down the street proceeded to ride by on her bicycle. That was a mistake! Kenny soaked her with the hose, and as she dropped her bike to run after him, he ran into the house where I was. As she came running onto the porch, I met her, with him standing behind me laughing away. She was quite angry, but I simply told her to leave, which she did. He learned the garden hose tricks from my Dad, his Grandfather. I was proud of him when he went into the Air Force and served in Desert Storm.

“ One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD.

Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand.

He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints.

He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it:

"LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied:

*"My son, my precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."###imported-begin##Pam###imported-

Now when I look at the pictures we have in our family albums of him, they will be cherished momentoes not quickly looked at. It is nice to think that one more family member has passed through the gates, making the pathway for the rest of us easier to find. I hope he remembers us in his prayers. “ Dear Ken and Janet, I was so sorry to hear about Kenny. I still don't think I have fully accepted it yet. I haven't seen him since probably our 10 year class reunion, but I have thought of him often. I'll always have fond memories of being at your house on Mapleview. It makes me smile when I remember he was my secret admirer in high school and proud when I think of when he joined the military. He was a wonderful person and I will miss him dearly. Please know that he is an angel now and will always be with you in your heart. If there is anything I can do to help please let me know anytime. Love -

“ Dear Messerschmidt Family:

I remember Kenny very well in high school, the fun guy who always was out going and very nice. He will be missed.

May God give you grace and strength in this time of trouble. Always remember Kenny is still very much alive in our hearts.

Take Care,

“ Ken and family.

It has been many years since I have seen you but have thought about you many times. We had alot of fun during and after school. God only takes the good ones and he found another angel in you. Love to all your family,

“ I have woked with Ken for years. He always made it fun to come to work. We never knew what to expect from day to day with Ken. He always had an honest opinion whether you wanted it or not. He is missed so much. My sympathies go to all the family. We all know he suffered and now is in a much better place. He has peace and no longer is in pain. All of us love and miss him so much.##imported-begin##Danielle Slack##imported-end##

“ Dear Father,

Words cannot explain how much I love you and care about you. I wish more than anything that you could be back home the way you were before this tragedy happened, but I know now that life is so much better for you up in Heaven. No more AIDS, brain tumors, or medicine. You're free from pain and misery. Please don't worry about me or mom. I promise you that we will be fine. I think about you everyday and I miss you more than ANYTHING in the whole world. God has blessed me with the world's greatest father anyone could ever have, and I am eternally grateful for that. Rest In Peace my best friend, my hero, and forever my dear and loving father.

“ I was very lucky to have worked with Ken - every day I knew he was going to walk into my office and scream my name and it would make my day. I remember last summer he was the emcee at the office place fashion show and everyone loved him - his remarks made everyone laugh. Ken made everyone feel good.

My heart goes out to Ken's entire family and please know that he was loved and everyone here will keep you in their prayers.

“ I have fun memories of high school with Kenny. He was always quite the "character" with quite a sense of humor. Although I have not seen him in awhile, he has been in my thoughts and prayers. My condolences go out to Laura and all his family.##imported-begin##Sheryl (Daugherty) Daniels##imported-end##
