“ Marianne and family,

I was so sorry to hear of Ken. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. I am so grateful that you and Ken came to my mother's 90th birthday party and we were able to spend some time together.

Take care and again, my thoughts are with you.##imported-begin##darlene covell##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to Ken’s wife Marianne and their family over his death on February 20. It’s been over 60 years since we were classmates at CCH, yet we still appreciate what he did to make our class a “Nifty Fifty” group. Although I cannot attend his funeral services, it will be an honor to celebrate a Mass for him on Monday, February 27. Ken may have missed this year’s Lenten Season, but in a sense he’s anticipated April’s Easter Sunday now that he’s in the presence of the Risen Lord. It will be our prayer that these words from the Scriptures for February 27 will not only remind us of his life, but also be fulfilled for him: “Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God am holy” “Love your neighbors yourself.” (Leviticus 19); “The decree of the Lord is trustworthy” “rejoicing the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.” (Responsorial Psalm 19); “Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you” “What you did for one of these least brothers or sisters of mine, you did for me.” (Matthew 25) May Ken rest in peace, and may his prayers for us continue to bring blessings into our lives. Sincerely yours in Christ, Fr. Albert Cylwicki, C.S.B., St. John Fisher College, Rochester, NY##imported-begin##Fr. Albert Cylwicki, C.S.B.##imported-end##

“ Our condolences to the Wicka family.

Fran and I are in Fla. for the winter, but will continue to keep Ken in our prayers. We have enjoyed so much our recent get togethers with Ken and our classmates from 1950.##imported-begin##Jerry Dietz##imported-end##
