“ Dearest Kent, I really have no words to express how much you will be missed by myself and my son Matthew. You and Lady Di have been the most wonderful neighbors and such awesome friends to not only us but to so many others. I will always remember being one of your "baseball wives" and the many gatherings at your place or ours. You are now with your love-Di and please give her a kiss from us. Love and miss you both so much!

“ I met Kent and Lady Di in Cancun in 2015. They were both so genuine and kind, always happy to include a new person to the point where you felt you belonged there.. Kent and I stood in the ocean and talk for quite awhile. He talked about his parents and their service to our country and of Lady Di and their sweet Abby and the thing that struck me was how fully this man loved those around him! In this day and age that is such a rare trait. We continued our friendship through Facebook and then phone conversations to discuss medical questions when his sweet Lady Di became ill. His complete devotion to her and their marriage is so inspiring. He was a wonderful soul and I am proud to call him, friend. He will be greatly missed 💕💕
