“ Kevin and I went to ITT Tech together, and we were great friends at school. He was a First-Class guy and a great friend. I remember when he pulled up in his brand new Green Trans Am and took me for a ride in it. Everyone who knew him was blessed, and I was very shocked to see his passing. He was a very caring person and my sympathy goes out for his family. You will be with us in spirit My Brother

Kevin and Onie bugs! He always said she was the ugliest dog in a really sweet voice. That meant he liked her a lot. In his way of saying it. As this picture is proof. He liked her:)

“ I can still remember meeting Kevin our first day on South Padre Island, spring break 1993. He ended up one of my best friends for many years. My heartfelt thoughts and prayers for his family.

“ I am so very sorry to hear this sad news. Sending all of my love and prayers to the entire family. My heart breaks for Kameron. Kevin was blessed with a amazing son, parents, and loving family. He talked to me often about how much fun he had with all of you. He definately loved you all. This is so shocking and unexpected. I know he is in heaven. He had a very strong belief in God. He talked to me about it before." Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy."
