“ It was truly a blessing to know Kevin. I will always remember him as that fun-loving, always made you laugh kind of guy. I'm sure when he got to heaven, Jesus welcomed him with both arms open wide and said "best friends hug with two arms." I really enjoyed hearing the great memories people shared. I wil continue to pray for comfort and peace all those whose lives he touched.##imported-begin##Nichole Roose##imported-end##

“ *Dave and Family,
Having children, and siblings of my own, I still cannot imagine the loss you are feeling. I wish I could say I knew Kevin well, I only saw him in passing. They were brief blurps. When i did see him I knew he was full of energy and life. Either walking out the door to do something with friends when i got there, or just getting home from somewhere. Dave you're a kind and helpful man, the apple never falls far from the tree, and that was evident in Kevin, remember his energy and his life. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ Dear Chris & family. Although it's been many years since we've last seen each other, I do remember the fun we all had taking turns visiting each others homes, the dinners, playing pictionary, the kids playing together & your cute, blonde & curly headed little boys. Words cannot express the sorrow we feel for all of you. Our hearts ache. Please know that you are in our prayers & thoughts. If you'd like to get in touch, we'd love to hear from you. Our hearts sank for you as we heard of the news just today 8-6-09.
May our God in heaven comfort you with HIS everlasting ever failing love-
Our prayer is that you press into God, lean on HIS grace & mercy and May our God bring comfort & peace in due time, and as we wait for that, celebrate Kevin's life. Kevin accepted Jesus in his heart years ago and he is with HIS heavenly Father, for a purpose unknown to us. May God's love & everyone's prayers (including ours) sustain you through this difficult time. You are all so loved!

“ Dave and Family,

My god, I can't imagine what it must be like for you.

This may not seem like much more than a glib gesture, but let me offer you the following poem. When I lost my Dad I was able to get some comfort reading it, and I still go back and re read it when I am thinking of him. Maybe it can do the same for you.

Peace be with you,

Greg

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am the song that will never end.
I am the love of family and friend.
I am the child who has come to rest
In the arms of the Father who knows him best.*

*When you see the sunset fair,
I am the scented evening air.
I am the joy of a task well done.
I am the glow of the setting sun.*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!##imported-begin##Greg

“ In this time of mourning and loss, I am reminded of a verse that always comforts me. This verse from Ecclesiastes from the New Testament seems to sum up our lives on earth and then when we journey to our heavenly father. Our prayers are with you Dave and Chris during this time of great tragedy. We loved Kevin as if he was one of our families. Please take solace in knowing that he is now with the angels.

Ecclesiastes from the New Testament

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.##imported-begin##Jack & Bridget Pantaleo##imported-end##

Death is an enemy that we all have to deal with eventually, whether its an unforeseen occurrence, a result of sickness, violence, an accident or just old age. However death will be done away with forever. We will never have to worry about losing any of our loved ones to it. We will have the opportunity to live forever in a paradise earth where the bad things we have to deal with daily will not exist. Also all those whom we have lost in death will have the opportunity to live in these wonderful conditions. “ It seems impossible to believe Kevin is gone. Not long ago we were teammates at Lutheran North. I will always remember his spirit and the fun we had at North. My thoughts are with the entire DeClerck family during this difficult time.

“ Both my mother and mother in law are residents of Pine Ridge. We have only known Kevin for about a year. From the very beginning, Kevin came across as very caring, friendly and always willing to help. He always seemed to know what was going on with our parents. He will be sorely missed. Our prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##John Vermeulen##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy at the loss of Kevin. Kevin brought happiness to my parents during their stay at PineRidge. My father enjoyed their chats about baseball and he always pointed out that Kevin had visited with him. I appreciated what he did and pray that your family will find comfort in the memories you have.##imported-begin##Annette Caruso##imported-end##

“ Our love and prayers go out to you at this sad time. I did not know your family personally but know the family name. Our son, Sam, was youth minister at Macomb and we were members there for years before moving to Alabama. Please remember that God is in control and he is there to comfort you.##imported-begin##Margaret Long##imported-end##

“ I was fortunate to meet Kevin at Steven's 9th grade xc meet at Delia Park last year. Steven and Kevin had the same laugh and joyful attitude. I was impressed with Kevin's support of Steven's running. My heart is with the entire DeClerck family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Megan Berry##imported-end##

“ Kevin helped us greatly with his smile and his caring attitude about the senior citizens he assisted. He was the main reason we choose Pineridge for my parents.

He will be missed by the people there.

Our deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Judy Landino##imported-end##
