“ Larry was my friend. We shared many heart and soul hours together. Though separated by many miles, we were always in touch. Whether in person, email, or by phone, our friendship always picked up right where it had left off. I admired him greatly. May God continue to bless his memory.

“ My deepest condolences to Nevers family. His sacrifice will never be forgotten. I was fortunate enough to meet Larry when I was in college, and he was an inspiration and a true hero. Every day I put on my gun and badge I think of Larry what he went through and how he paid for so dearly for being an honest and good cop. His memory will never fade, his spirit will always be present. Rest in Peace, Larry.

“ Nancy & Kelly

Thank you sharing a "hero" with law abiding families of Detroit and the suburbs. Larry was a courageous first responder long before that term was part of our vernacular. For those of us who were friends with Larry, we will miss him. God bless you both as you deal with your great loss.

With deepest sympathy. Rick Lynn

“ For all the work you did to make the City of Detroit a safer place to live and work,

We, your supporters, thank you.

For all the pain and suffering you endured from the ungrateful citizens,

We, the appreciative citizens, apologize.

May your soul rest in a well-earned peace. Amen

“ It was tonight February 6, 2013 that my students at Grand Valley State University informed me of the death of Officer Larry Nevers. We were discussing his distinguished career when coincidentally the news came from his website. I am so sorry for this tremendous loss. Nancy, Kelly and family please accept my deepest sympathy. He will always remind me of love and courage.

Blessings,

“ Dear Nancy and Kelly, Diane and I were so sorry to hear of Larry’s passing. We’re sure he will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He was a great guy who we have known (you both) for over 50 years. We remember our double dates, our mutual weddings, vacation to Macinac Island and skiing at Shanty Creek. What fun we had. Larry was my best friend in those days, and I remember after he joined Detroit PD I tried to talk him into applying at Westland PD where I was an officer. He wouldn’t consider it, he enjoyed working in Detroit where the action was. We were there at the ceremony at the Chief’s Annual Convention when he received the Michigan Chiefs of Police Medal of Honor. We were so very proud of him. He was a kind man who I never saw get angry, except of course when we were having a hot game of pool in our basement. We had a lot of fun riding our motorcycles together and the trip we took on them up North. Lot’s of wonderful memories of you both. We just re-read a letter he sent us at Christmas time in 2011. The love he had for you, Kelly and his Granddaughter were obvious in what he said. Even though he was in poor shape physically, he displayed strength in living with what life had dealt him. He was always a courageous man, both now and in the old days on the streets of Detroit. He has earned a special place in Heaven and May he Rest in Peace. Roger and Diane Graves, Marshall, Michigan

“ Larry holds a very special place in my heart. We grew up together and and he always made me feel important and special. He was like an older brother to me. We did write to each other during some of the difficult times and I admired him so.

My thoughts are with his wife Nancy, daughter Kelly, and brother "Billy".

*I have three daughters who also want to send their sincere sympathies to the family for their loss. Larry's smile, laugh, and Donald Duck impression will always remain in our hearts. Fondly,
