“Larry and I were best friends in high school and truly had a lot of fun times with lots of funny stories to tell. Larry's car in high school was a Simca, if you're familiar with those they were pretty lousy cars with a 4 speed on the column, but we had a riot with it. After Larry's stint in the Navy, we remained friends for several years but as happens so often in life friends take different paths. I'll always remember him as a great friend.
