“ I remember Larry as always smiling and looking a bit mischievous. What a great cousin growing up with. Parties in his parents basement, at the cottage on Briggs lake, holidays at Grandma's. You could depend on Larry. He's left wonderful memories for me and will never leave them.

“ Cheryl Ann, and family
You are in our thought's and prayers. South Carolina Is just to far to make it.
But we did enjoy the short time we had we had with family at the lake house.
When we were all young even Aunt Pearl. Just remember my dear God had his plans for both you and Larry you two were to meet and raise a family.
Right now honey the best thing that I can think of to give to you that you need the most is the gift of Love and <http://www.wasikfuneralhome.com/obituaries/Lawrence-Bryk/#!/this> little Candle let it shine on for ever.
