

Lawrence Earl Kish

December 3, 1926 - October 2, 2023

Kish, Lawrence Age 96, Passed October 2, 2023. Beloved husband of the late Thelma. Dearest father of Jan (Frank) Knoll, Larry (Muffy) Kish, Gene (Kathy) Kish, and Al (Shannon) Kish. Devoted and loving G-pa of Brian (Jennifer) Knoll, Jason (Beth) Knoll, Derek (Sandy) Kish, Ryan (Jill) Kish, Danny Kish and Alex (Zach) Taranto. Loving GG of Aiden Knoll, Camden Knoll, Peighton Knoll, Addisyn Knoll, Carsten Knoll, Gracelynn Knoll, Christian Knoll and Sloane Kish. Larry served the US proudly and was an honorably discharged veteran. He then met the love of his life on a baseball field. A story which they loved to share! They were married on November 3, 1952 on the Bride and Groom Show on television and celebrated their 66th anniversary in 2018. He worked tirelessly to raise a wonderful family. Both he and Thelma set a true example for their children and spouses.

When the grandkids started to arrive, they quickly began to become athletes and Larry and Thelma never missed a beat at attending games, concerts, dance recitals, graduations and soon enough their weddings. They had a deep love of their family, one that matches the legacy of Larry's 96 years. Today he is reunited with Thelma, dancing pain free! His heart will always continue to be full and his love will remain in hearts forever. May he share that sweet, sweet smile and that beautiful white hair of his with every angel that welcomes him through Heaven's doors – We are sure the first one to be there will be Thelma!

“ Thinking of Larry always brings a smile! So MANY wonderful memories! My dad, Austin, loved him dearly! Always together on the handball court! Also, date night with Thelma and my mom, Nancy. They also loved picnics with their families, playing cards with Aunt Mary Ellen and Uncle Richard out in the yard. Whenever they were together their laughter rang out like a song! There was love and that JOY of life! How blessed we were to have them in our lives and what a legacy of LOVE left to cherish! Rejoicing over their heavenly reunion. I can hear dad calling out to Larry, laughing with his blue eyes sparkling, "We've been waiting for you buddy!" With love and heartfelt sympathy for your loss. May the beautiful memories give you comfort and peace!
