“ Dear David, Jeffrey and Brian,
My deepest condolences. So sad to know that Leo has passed. He was a hard worker and a faithful and loving husband . He was also a wonderful father as is reflected in his having raised three successful and caring sons. I will cherish a lot of wonderful happy memories.....his pride in his '60 candy-apple Bonneville, picnics at Warsaw and Hines Park , some great birthday parties he hosted for the boys and granddaughter and seeing his joy in being a Michigan fan and watching U of M sports. He will be missed
