“ Dear Paul, Alex, Derek and family,

Dan & I feel fortunate to have spent time with your parents at your 50th birthday in Novemeber. Your Mom and I had a long visit and and I really enjoyed her company. I remember thinking later that night how she was clearly dedicated to her family and thought of you all first. I admired her and will remember her for that. God blessed all of you with such a great Mom and Grandma. We love you all.

“ Dear Wasko Family,

Its been 24 hours since Ciocia Lee's funeral services and the drive back to Chicago made me reminisce of the my times spent with her. Although petite in appearance she was "big" in impacting my life. Ciocia's relationship with my Mother, the caring and love shown through the 70+ years, was nothing short of an incredible bond that only they could share and we were lucky enough to observe. Ciocia's "bigness" was her ability to be motherly to all of her extended family (nephews & nieces). Too me, it was her ability to make me feel comfortable and be relaxed, like being home. Being around her made me forget about the small and big issues of the day, I faced as a kid and as an adult. Today, I realize when I was ever around her, even at a very young age, although I didn't know it at the time, I was around someone very, very SPECIAL. Cioica Lee was 100% loving, caring, fun to be around, a great cook, a beautiful person inside and out, --- for she was the full package. Uncle Dick, now that I have close to 50 years of "life" experiences under my belt, I realize now you were one lucky guy. I hope that my 2 daughters, Rachel and Kendall, can pick up even a few of Ciocia's traits, for they will make me and their future families very, very proud. Ciocia Lee has moved on to a GREAT PLACE and knowing her she is looking down on us and praying we all have great life's ahead of us. It was good seeing you all the last few days. Our love to you all --- Phil, Kathy, Rachel and Kendall.##imported-begin##Phil Sawa & Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Alex & Derek:

Rick & I are so sorry to hear that your grandmother has passed away. We know you loved her very much and that you will miss her very much. We also know that she loved you both so much.

Now you have the memories that she created for you that you will cherish always.

We are happy you got to see her before she passed on to a better place.

We love you both very much,

“ Dear Paul:

Rick & I are so sorry to hear of the passing of your beloved Mother. We feel fortunate we were able to spend some time with her last November when she made her last trip to California to be with you and your children on your 50th birthday. We are so happy you and the kids made it there to visit with her once last time before she made her way to Heaven.

Blessings to you as you grieve. All of our love, Linda & Rick###imported-begin##Linda & Rick Reynolds###imported-end##

“ Pam & Mike & Family; you are in both my thoughts and prayers. We often go through life with too little time spent expressing kind feelings of loving sentiment and leaving tender thoughts unsaid. I know you as an absolute champion of these expressions!! I hope that there is peace in knowing that your mom always knew how very much she was loved.###imported-begin###April Yates###imported-end##

“ Hi Uncle Dick:
Cocia Lee was a very special person to our family. MaryAnn always enjoyed talking and visiting with her. MaryAnn was so grateful that Lee talked her into being a nurse. To MaryAnn, Cocia Lee was more than an aunt, she was a friend.

“ Dear Dick:

We are very sorry to hear about loss. It seems that we are coming to the time of life, when we are losing loved ones or friends. Much too soon for our liking. I would like to include one of my favorite poems, which may be of some consolation.

DESIDERATA

*GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, AND REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story * Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become either vain or bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans * Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism * Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass * Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune..But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself * You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should * Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul RWith all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy . . .*
