“ When someone we love dies it breaks our hearts. We try to accept it as a part of life as we struggle to move on without them in our lives. Fortunately, our loving Creator has promised that soon such events as death will no longer haunt mankind and separate us from those we love. Jehovah God has promised to destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5: 28, 29) May these Bible truths bring comfort and reassurance to your hearts that you can see your loved one again. My deepest sympathy to you.

“ To Jim and Sue,

I'm so sorry for the loss of your father. You often related stories at work about your dad and how he influenced and raised you after losing your mother.

“ Sorry for the death of your loved one. We all know that the sting of death is sharp and painful. Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of a loved one. So the battle against death is not a hopeless one. Jesus confirms, however, that only God can win that battle for us. “He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”—Isaiah 25:8. “The last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.”—1 Corinthians 15:26. I hope you find comfort in the above words from the bible.
