“ My deepest sympathy to all. I can honestly say that he was my favorite uncle. Always pleasant with an excellent sense of humor. Wish there were more people like him around.

“ So sorry for your loss. I remember Len and Lillian coming up top Sterling Lanes to watch us bowl. I also remember his thoughtfulness with Penrickton and the fund raiser dinner.

My thought are with you "Zar" and "Minnie." I always enjoyed speaking with your dad and still remember him to this day. A bit of a gruff exterior but a teddy bear and kind -hearted soul inside. You have my deepest sympathy.
