“ Very sad to see this, I would always go to class 15 minutes early to chat with her. I learned a lot in her Program Management Class.

“ I just heard that Lesia passed. I am extremely saddened and still in shock. She was the best professor I have ever had. She had a heart of gold. I will forever miss her. She did so much for me. She mentored me, she helped me by giving me multiple books as they were expensive and she knew I could not afford them. She drove me to school multiple times as my car was very old and it was a long drive. She went up and beyond to show me love (I was one of her students). No professor ever has done what she did for me. She showed me motherly love while still being very good at teaching the subject and making me do all the work the proper way. She was very professional while being very very kind. She made me work very hard and motivated me in so many ways. I will forever carry her love in my heart ❤️ I hope she rests in peace and we meet again one day in heaven.

“ I have just found out today and I feel sad for the family I wished I would have checked my email sooner. My condolences to the friends and family she was one of my favorite teachers by far and I was just messaging her telling her I wouldn't be a stranger. You will be missed <3. Thank you for being a nice caring teacher and friend and teaching me that everything will be ok. May you rest in peace :)

“ Lesia was my instructor at Macomb. I hadn't taken a class in years and she shared so many stories of the workplace that I could identify with. I would wait to walk out with her at night so we could chat, I truly enjoyed talking to her and wished we were able to get together, but you always think you have more time and then you don't. She was a very sweet down to earth lady and I enjoyed her class tremendously. Sympathy goes out to friends and family. See you on the other side Lesia.

“ My condolences to Lesia's loved ones. There are so few pure hearted people on this planet, but Lesia Mahon was on of them. I couldn't once remember a time where you didn't lift my spirits. You truly were an inspiration on how to treat others. You will be missed my friend.

“ We were deeply saddened to learn of Lesia's passing and miss her greatly every day. Lesia was always warm and welcoming to everyone at Ally. She was a mother hen to all the members of her team or on her projects. She looked out for everyone even in the smallest of ways. I enjoyed chatting with Lesia in the early mornings when we both arrived in the office. We loved chatting about many of our shared cultural traditions and wonderful foods, especially around the holidays. She shared stories about herself and sister and I shared stories about my Polish immigrant family. Her kindness and positivity helped fill all of us with hope. She had an infectious smile and witty responses that kept us all on our toes. We miss you Lesia, every day.

“ Lesia was one of my dearest friends, and I loved her very much. We've met in Walsh College and also in Ally where we were working in same department. Lesia was kind, smart, funny (she always made me laugh), and being great friends with her was so easy as she always made me feel like I was part of her life. I will miss her so much.

“ I was shocked and very saddened when I heard about Lesia Mahon this morning. She was an amazing person who had more energy than a 20-year-old! I often told her that when we worked together. I had the privilege of working with Lesia and considered her a mentor and friend. She kept the workplace enjoyable and work was still accomplished at a very high level. Lesia always amazed me, how she could work a 40 work week, then teach several nights a week at Walsh College. I still quote some of her insightful lines....and always preface it by saying, "this came from my very clever friend!" She "lived life to the fullest and always focused on the positive." Lesia will be dearly missed. My prayers go out to her sons, grandchildren and all her wonderful friends.

“ Lesia was one of the most amazing and inspirational women I have met. She never missed a good morning at work and always put her students first. I was lucky enough to not only be a co-worker of hers, but also a student. Her passions and love will always be remembered in my heart. The family and loved ones of Lesia will be in my prayers, but her memory will always live on in my heart.
