“ Words cannot express the gratitude I have for Lou. God sends special people to make an impact. Lou whether you know it or not you made an impact on me Brother. I worked with Lou at GNSC for many years. I am saddened that I was unable to attend your services. I pray Cindy that you are comforted knowing how loved you and he are. Please accept my apology for not making it and just now getting to express my sympathy. Been a rough couple years for me personally as well.

“ 40 yrs of friendship, visits, vacations ,fabulous restaurants, countless bottles of wine, all night coffee drinking, golfing, Shriner activities, and the talks....about everything from relationships to family to our love for music. I will never hear Willie Nelson without thinking of you and your dancing. I will so miss our talks that we shared when we were able to get together whether face to face or on the phone or messaging. Knowing that I could reach out to you whenever I needed my friend meant the world to me. Knowing that you were at the most a phone call away for 40 yrs was such a comfort. Fly high with the Angels my friend. God speed.

“ One of my memories of Lewis was when he came to our house on Fourth St with Donna and a very young, Kim. I was probably about 10 or 11. My mom had fixed a pot roast with corn bread and sweet potatoes with the mini marshmallows for me, and we were all very crowded around the small kitchen table talking and laughing. My mom was always worried if she had enough for everyone and put out little side dishes of olives and sweet pickles. Lewis started eating the sweet pickles and just seemed that he couldn't stop or get enough. He got a nice slap on the arm for being greedy but in the end my mom refilled the sweet pickles and it made everyone laugh. Good times. Funny the things that stick in your head. He and his brother, Woody always entertained us with their Donald Duck. It was so cute and funny. I love you, Lewis and will miss you. Barb (Horne) Down
