

Lillian C. Alford

December 3, 1925 - January 13, 2021

Lillian C. Alford, age 95 of New Baltimore "went to her reward" of natural causes Jan. 13, 2021. She was an avid reader, friendly, outgoing, and loved her friends and family. She was a co-owner, with her husband of a Dairy Queen in Roseville from 1967-1984. Loving Mother of Susan Accivatti (Thomas), Ellen Alford (Gary Graham), Lillian L. Alford (Don Petre); fun-loving Nana of Cara (Ron) Hudson, Lauren Petre, Rachael Petre (Andrew Corbin), Andrew Petre, and Matthew Accivatti (Kelly). Dear Gigi to Kennah, Addison, Jackson and Colton. Preceded in death by her husband of 60 years Harry F. Alford, grandson Edward Accivatti, and her four Cessna sisters. She will also be missed by her numerous nieces and nephews. Bye for now. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials be made to a charity of your choice or your local food bank.

“ Will miss you cousin Lil, we've known each since I was little. We were second or third maybe 4th cousins really everyone a family joke You opened your home for my 16th skating party. Will never forget that. We had so many good laughs through the years. Love you very much. This world will be a sadder place without you. God bless. Keep them all smiling in heaven.

“ I have so many good memories of Lil and Fritz. They were always there for us whenever we were in need.in the last years before we moved to Idaho they came to Richmond where I cut their hair and then the four of us went to lunch together. I will miss knowing that Lil was still there with her family who loved her as they loved her. Much love to you; Susie and Tom, Lilly and Don and Ellen and all of your children and grandchildren.
