“ To the family, especially Gary who always came when we had a plumbing problem:
I know you will miss her dearly. My husband, Lawrence Terrell, has passed on as well. I remember your Mom as a homey, friendly voice on the phone, who always showed concern over whatever problem we were having and sent Gary out that day if possible. Your father came when he was still able, and then Gary and the others. I still live in the same home on Concord, which has the same pipes you installed. I pray you will carry on with strength and good memories of a strong and lovely Mom who was a real people person.
My deepest sympathy.
Mrs. M. Terrell
