“ Dear Mr. Wilk, Pam, Larry, Eric, Laura & spouses,
So sorry to hear of the loss of your mom, wife, & grandma. I wish we would have known earlier so that we could have visited the funeral home. Commonwealth street doesn't seem to be the same any more. Most of the original homeowners have moved away. I know how hard it is to have an ill parent. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God bless all of you.

“ My Mom Elaine saw the notice just today. We had many fond memories of our Commonwealth days. My Mom and Dad Eugene, Joanne and I are all very sad for the loss of your Mom, grandmother and wife. Sarah Hillier is coming to town this week and I am sure all the old good times growing up will be revisited. I hope you will find strength and comfort. Our love and prayers are with you... the Kukula Family##imported-begin##Patti Kukula and family##imported-end##

“ Pamela, Larry, Eric, Laura & Uncle Ted,

I am so sorry for your loss. My memories are all old but none have lost their vividness over the years, nor their ability to make me smile, especially the Brockton memories at Grandma's. Aunt Lil will live in my heart forever.
