“ Hi my name is Shaunta. i did not personally know the person the has passed away, but i wanted to share some encouraging thoughts from the bible to help you to cope. One thing that helps me to deal is what is being brought out in Ecclesiastes 9:5, and John 11:11. Those scriptures bring out how those who have died, are not conscious of anything, and how they are at rest, sleeping. they are no longer going through any pain, they have no negative thoughts, or positive, and are just a rest. Some people grieve because they wish they could tell the person one last thing, or could hold them one last time. The bible tells us at John 5:28,29 " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs(dead ones) will hear my voice, and will come out". Isn't this a time to look forward too? A time when we will see our dead loved ones again. Again, i am sorry about your loss. Its normal to go through a grieving process and take the time to do so. If you have Any questions about the bible, what happens at death , or how to cope, feel free to write me at ShauntaBraxton@yahoo.com###imported-begin##Shaunta###imported-end##

“ We are so so sorry to hear of your Mother's passing. We will miss her laughter. She sure did put up with a lot from all of you, and managed to always smile. I know that your father was waiting for her and now they are together again.###imported-begin##Theresa (Sadie) Moore###imported-end##

“ Oh what a wonderful reunion it must be in heaven with Uncle Ed, my dad Vic, Uncle Stanley, and her mom & dad. Remembering Aunt Lillian, the wonderful Christmas letters, the wonderful Polish traditional Christmas Celebrations as a child, her & Uncle Ed's visits to the U.P. The loss you all feel must be very deep. Hope you all find peace in knowing she is being well cared for in her heavenly home. My daughter Kati who is expecting in June had decided a few weeks back to name her baby (if it's a girl) Lily-Ann and was looking forward to telling Aunt Lillian about it in her Christmas correspondence. May God walk with you in your time of sorrow. See you all in Gaylord tomorrow.

“ We were so saddened to hear about Aunt Lillian. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. She was a wonderful Godmother and Aunt. Over the years we have not seen much of each other, but we always got to catch up with each others lifes on our Christmas cards. I would always smile and remember all the old times together. Many good memories of past Holidays and get togethers. She was a gentle soul with a smile that always brightened a room. She will be greatly missed. All our thoughts and prayers to you all.
